

Alexandria Gazette

SATURDAY EVENING, SEPT. 18.

The Independent Farmer.
Let sailors sing the windy deep,
Let soldiers praise their armor;
But in my heart this toast I'll keep,
The Independent Farmer.
When first the rose in robes of green,
Unfolds its crimson lining,
And round his homely porch is seen
The honeysuckle twining.
When banks of bloom their sweetness yield
To bees that gather honey,
He drives the team across the field,
Where skies are soft and sunny.
The blackbird corks behind his ploughs,
The quail pipes loud and clearly;
Yon orchard hides behind its boughs
The home he loves so dearly.
The gray old barn, whose doors are open,
His ample store in measure,
More rich than hoards of hoarded gold,
A precious, blessed treasure;
But yonder on the porch there stands
His wife, the lovely charmer,
The sweetest rose on all his land:
The Independent Farmer.
